What is the National Scholarship Programme?

- The National Scholarship Programme for the Support of Mobility of students, PhD students, university teachers, researchers and artists is a scholarship programme approved by the Government of the Slovak Republic in 2005.
- The National Scholarship Programme in the Slovak Republic supports study and research trips at universities and research organisations abroad on a temporary basis – at foreign scholarship holders in Slovakia, as well as of Slovak scholarship holders abroad. Scholarships cover living costs related to the scholarship stay. Slovak scholarship applicants may also apply for a travel grant.

• The Programme scholarship holders are scholarship holders of the Government of the Slovak Republic. The National Scholarship Programme is funded by the Ministry of Education, Science, Research and Sport of the Slovak Republic and administered by SAIA, n. o.

SAIA, n. o.

• SAIA (the Slovak Agency for Information Acquisition) is a public-law organisation that since its establishment in 1993, has been implementing programmes and providing services aimed at the interests of civil society and assisting in international cooperation in education and research in Slovakia. SAIA provides information and advisory services related to study and research mobility, administers several scholarship and grant programmes and promotes Slovak involvement and research organisations abroad.
